

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR CHALLENGE

Current Cartmelians, how well do you know your neighbors? See if you can match your neighbor to the correct little-known fact about him or her.

(Answers will be available on the Cartmel website.)

1. I pressed apple cider in the barn that accompanied Ellerslie.
2. I swam 3 miles a week, every week for 20 years. Just prior to moving to Cartmel.
3. Spoke in French at the Hotel de Ville in Paris.
4. Introduced Bishop Desmond's daughter to a large church gathering, before I was interviewed by Rick Williams of ABC news.
5. I played in a concert band in Europe.
6. "Where did I have dinner with Ted Sorenson and Sergei Khrushchev?"
7. I played volleyball with the (at the time) Surgeon General of the USA.
8. I have an expert qualification in flame throwers.
9. My wife and I went canoeing with Bill and Hillary.
10. When the bomb fell on Hiroshima, I was in the Philippines training for an invasion of Japan.
11. What small child ran into the backyard to see the huge dirigible, the Macon, flying overhead?
12. I have only acted twice for the Barley Sheaf Players and won their "Tony" award for both roles.
13. A little boy came to my door holding a dead bird in his hand. He asked if I was the lady who fixed dead birds?
14. I encountered Eleanor Roosevelt in the ladies' room at the UN in NYC in the spring of 1946.
15. Danced with Miss Singapore at the Miss Universe Contest.
16. In 1986 at 12,500 feet on the altiplano near LA Paz, Bolivia, I watched the passing of Haley's Comet (and I was disappointed).
17. I am pretty much ambidextrous- meaning that I am a lefty who was converted to writing right handed long ago.
18. In 1968 my wife and I lived in a "staunchly" Republican suburban community, we voted for Dick Gregory in the presidential election- causing the Township supervisors significant concern.
19. My father trained wild horses. He loved horses and knew how to communicate with them.
20. Discovered and helped excavate an 800 year-old Anasazi body in Cortez, Colorado near Mesa Verde.
21. In seventh grade he began playing drums in the band. He continued this interest as a "side gig" playing at restaurants on the weekends for extra income until he was 33.
22. I walked 63 hilly miles in 3 days.
23. I used to call the roosters.

24. I worked in central Africa for three years.
25. I was a WAC.
26. The closest I ever came to a tiger in the wild was in Nepal when an angry Bengal tiger charged the elephant I was riding.
27. In 1998, I auditioned to be a program host at QVC- went to Studio Park and presented a product-"Tony Robbins' Motivational Tapes"-before three producers. Wasn't hired (obviously)-it was the year that Jayne Brown got the job. It was fun and challenging.
28. I accidentally shot her in the leg with a wad from a blank pistol in our school play. Needless to say, that made her performance more realistic.
29. I was banned from Greek Week's singing competition (was allowed to just mouth the words!) b/c I couldn't carry a tune! But I am still singing-off key/ wrong words too-and lovin' it.
30. I worked in the laundry at the Old Faithful Inn at Yellowstone.
31. He climbed from the base to the peak of Mt. Washington with his wife and back down in one day.
32. I was in Ogunquit, ME. on VJ Day and helped celebrate by riding around on a Fire Engine with sirens blaring and adding as much noise as possible! Do most people remember the GLORIOUS feeling of having the war over????
33. She played the role of Kim in her H.S. musical production of "Bye Bye Birdie".
34. In 1968 my husband and I lived in a "staunchly" Republican suburban community, we voted for Dick Gregory in the presidential election- causing the Township supervisors significant concern.
35. I played Biff, the oldest son of Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman" in summer stock.
36. My mother was a first cousin of Walter Schirra, who was a naval pilot who became one of the initial seven astronauts.
37. My husband and I went canoeing with Bill and Hillary.
38. As a teenager I met Tab Hunter (who just died this past year). I was part of a teen group who met at the old Jordan Marsh store in Boston and we talked about fashion, etiquette, etc. Tab came and spoke to our group. I had his autograph in my autograph book, but at the time our house was robbed (2012) the book went. It was in a drawer with some jewelry and the whole drawer got dumped.
39. I have taken tap dancing lessons 3 times!!! But I still can't dance!
40. Was on a postage stamp.
41. I taught the German national soccer team how to Indian hand wrestle.

42. I "once worked for the IRS". I only worked for about 6-9 months after college. That was before I became a stay at home housewife raising five children.
43. One of my mother's ancestors was one of the signers of the death warrant for English King Charles I, who was executed January 30, 1649.
44. I've lived in Carmel longer than I have lived in any one place since I was a child.
45. I was the organizer for a mini reunion of high school friends 16 years ago. We still gather together at different locations every other year.
46. I caught and relocated at least 50 pesky racoons from my yard during the ten years before moving to Carmel.
47. I played Sophronia Hawkes, a starring role, in a half-hour weekly radio program called "On To Oregon" about a family traveling West in their Conestoga wagon, from, 1953-1956.
48. Recently canonized Pope Paul VI gave me his blessing in 1969. No miracle has ensued-as yet.
49. I am known in my family as the kid who likes to chew bones with dogs and the man with the scar on his nose. When I was about 4 years old, I was playing on the floor beside Buster, the family dog who was chewing on a deer bone. After watching Buster enjoying the bone for a few seconds I guess I decided that I wanted to try it, so I started chewing on the other end of the bone. Buster was not happy and bit the bridge of my nose. I am told that within seconds my face was flooded with blood. My mother who was a nurse, stopped the bleeding within seconds and repaired the injury. To this day, I still have the scar on the bridge of my nose and still love to chew meat off bones sans dogs.
50. I weighed people at Weight Watchers.
51. I was a public-school music teacher and taught 22 years but retired 35 years ago!

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR CHALLENGE CARTMEL NEIGHBORS

A. Penny Alderson	W. Alan Knight	A19. Sue Swasey
B. Fiona Allison	X. Hedvika Knoth	A20. Jim Swasey
C. Duncan Allison	Y. June Lunney	A21. Ferd Thun
D. Elaine Amoss	Z. Pat Mapps	A22. Ben Van Vechten
E. George Amoss	A1. Jean McClelland	A23. Wynne Wharry
F. Cindy Arrouet	A2. Jack McClelland	A24. Sam Wharry
G. Dennis Arrouet	A3. Wynne Milner	A25. Jane Wahl
H. Dick Betts	A4. John Milner
I. Ed Breneman	A5. Sandy Neufeld
J. Mary Breneman	A6. Barry Neufeld
K. Bev Brookes	A7. Carl Nieberle
L. Sid Brookes	A8. Elise Parker
M. Jean Conary	A9. Joyce Parrett
N. Steve Conary	A10. Jeff Randall
O. Dorothy Dyke	A11. Grant Reed
P. Cathy Elder	A12. Joel Rind
Q. Tom Elder	A13. Connie Schappell
R. Charmaine Gates	A14. Sandy Slaymaker
S. Spencer Gates	A15. Johanne Strahan
T. Frieda Hopkins	A16. Ellen Strober
U. Ruth Joyce	A17. Karen Sutton
V. Loretta Knight	A18. Bob Sutton	